MARSHAL IS HELD IN THIS COUNTY

Wade Brown Will Have His Hearing Tuesday

He Says Shooting of Young Bolton
Yesterday Was Entirely Accidental.

MANY EXPRESS SYMPATHY

Wade Brown, deputy United States marshal who shot and killed James Bolton, a bootlegger, near Hickman, Fulton county, was brought to McCracken county last night at 9 o'clock by Sheriff Scaet, of Fulton county, who came here as a guard. Marshal Brown will remain here until his examining trial at Hickman Tuesday. They came in at 8:30 o'clock.

"The shooting was purely accidental," Marshal Brown stated, "and this will be my defense. I am appreciative of the sympathy shown me. Over 50 prominent men in Paducah have called me up over telephone to extend their sympathy and in Fulton county I was shown much sympathy and courtesy. It was through the courtesy of the sheriff that I was permitted to come to Paducah and finish my work. I have telegraphed Marshal Long at Louisville, notifying him if the shooting and asking him to send a man down to fill my place when federal court convenes Monday.

"I shall not make any statement about the shooting other than that it was accidental. I will be given a regular examining trial Tuesday, and the inquest, I think, will not cut any figure in my case."

Brown had James Bunch, another prisoner charged with bootlegging, in jail at Hickman yesterday when the shooting occurred. He intended bringing Bunch here yesterday for trial. The warrant against Bolton will be returned marked, "executed," as Bolton was under arrest when he tried to escape.

After a consultation this morning between Circuit Judge William Reed and County Judge R. T. Lightfoot, it was decided to permit Mr. Brown to be guarded at his home and George Ragland was appointed special deputy sheriff to guard him.

PLEA FOR PUBLIC TO ASSIST PLAN

Interurban Promoters Have Good Eastern Backing

Illinois Branch of Proposed Extension Received Encouraging Impetus.

HAVE NOT GIVEN UP PROJECT

Special from Du Quoin, Ill., to the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, under date of April 3, says that the Carnegie Trust company, of New York city has subscribed to the $2,000,000 bond issue of the Du Quoin, Belleville & St. Louis railway, a proposed interurban line connecting those towns.

Mr. D. R. Archer, who is interested in the proposed interurban from Paducah to Mayfield and Fulton, is vice president of the company, and it is the intention of the promoters to make this line a connecting link in a system of interurbans from St. Louis south, passing through Paducah.

When requested to give some information about the progress of the line from here south Mr. Archer today authorized the following statement:

"Mr. Archer has been in Paducah since the middle of last October, trying to interest local people in the line from Paducah to Mayfield, Fulton and Hickman."

"Mr. B. H. Scott and H. H. Lovins are interested with Mr. Archer and some Hickman and Brookport people have been interested in a small way."

"Mr. Archer feels that the proposition that he would like to get local people to consider is one worthy of attention of the citizens of Paducah as it would be a very profitable line, if built, and certainly would be of vast benefit to Paducah. He has a thoroughly responsible financial concern in the east that will give a gilt-edge bond of $100,000 to build the proposed road, and complete it in 12 months but in order to complete this arrangement, it is necessary for the eastern people to be brought here and inspect and approve the proposed route."

"Certainly the citizens of Paducah can appreciate what great value such a line would be to the city, and Mr. Archer's proposition ought to be carefully investigated and if feasible, encouraged liberally by the citizens of Paducah and those along the proposed line."

CANDIDATES NOT ANXIOUS TO OPEN

Each Seems to be Waiting For Others to Start Fire Works
Before Democratic Primary
May 2

SOME OF THEM ARE EQUIPPED.

Hanging back to see what his opponents will do is the attitude of most of the Democratic candidates in the primary to be held May 2. It is less than 20 days until the primary takes place and public speaking will begin in the next week or ten days. Nearly every major candidate seen says he will go on the stump if his opponent does, and all leave the initiative to some one who will take the lead. Colonel Charles Reed says he does not expect to speak publicly under any circumstances. "Every voter is 21 years old," said Colonel Reed, "and I believe I am perfectly able to make up my mind without my talking publicly about the race."

"I'll take the stump if the other candidates do," said Mr. Dick Davis, candidate for mayor. It is understood that Colonel Joe Potter is preparing some red hot stump speeches and Mr. Harrison's friends say he will talk straight to the people when he goes on the stump.

In the clerk's race a mutual agreement between the two candidates may do away with the stump speaking. In the other races, except the mayor's race, the interest is not keen enough to start the candidates to oratory.

The Hook is pumping them out, and probably will save them all.

JURY DISAGREES IN THAW'S CASE

Jury Spent Time in Digesting
Rehashed Evidence

Were Out Nearly Fifty Hours and Received Considerable Further Instruction.

HIS FAMILY SEEMED WORRIED

New York, April 12.—(Bulletin 3:35 o'clock)—The Thaw jury disagreed.

New York, April 12.—With Thaw's jurors having been out 46 hours without reaching an agreement, it is believed by attorneys and officials about the court that the only possible result is a mistrial. When court resumed this afternoon there was little hope of a verdict. The jury lunched in the jury room in order to avoid the immense mob that surrounded the court house. Crowds were driven back under heavy blows of the police and remained a block away, awaiting still more eagerly the words that would tell the story they hope to hear. Thaw still claims he is not alarmed and is full of confidence that he will be acquitted, but his nervousness does not bear out this assertion.

The Thaw jury went to breakfast early this morning and returned to the criminal court building at 9:15 o'clock and at once resumed consideration of the case.

Women of the Thaw family arrived at the court building at 10:25 o'clock and immediately went to the judge's chamber. Evelyn, who left the building in an exhausted condition last night, appeared much refreshed. Mrs. William Thaw put up the same brave front. Thaw passed another apparently sleepless night in the Tombs. He tossed and tumbled on his bed.

Early today all approach to the jury room was carefully barred and no one could say how the jury stood. After 31 hours of unsuccessful deliberation the Thaw jury was at 11:40 o'clock ordered locked up for the night by Justice Fitzgerald, and the chance for a verdict seems more distant than ever.

This was the most trying and nerve-racking day of the world famous trial. Every one connected with the case from the most unimportant court attaché, including the prisoner, his family, the lawyers for both the defense and the prosecution and the jurors, showed the effects of the great suspense.

The jury by its action in calling for exhibits in the case and by having read to them the testimony of witnesses which has a bearing on the sanity of Thaw at the time he killed White show that they had abandoned consideration of Delmas' "unwritten law" plea. They were wrestling with the question as to whether or not the murder of the architect was a cold blooded, premeditated one or whether Thaw's mind was in such an unbalanced and highly wrought up state as a result of Evelyn's story of her ruination that the sight of her betrayer caused him to lose all sense of right and wrong and that he did not know, as Delmas claimed, that he was doing wrong in pumping White's body full of bullets.

Shortly before noon the jury returned from lunch to be sent to the jury room. Court then took a recess until 2 o'clock.

The mother, wife and two sisters and brothers of the defendant were in the criminal court building up to the last minute, and when it was finally announced that the jury had been locked up for the night and there was no longer any prospect of a verdict before tomorrow they returned to their hotel crestfallen.

Twice during the day the jury filed into the court room and asked assistance of the court to endeavor to bring about an agreement.

Trusty prisoners at the county jail are today cutting the court house lawn and as soon as warmer weather sets in plants and flowers will be set out. The grass in the court house yard has been green all winter.

An option has been secured on the H. F. Lyon property between Eighth and Ninth streets on Clark street, and is being considered as a site for a new school house. The committee is finding it hard to procure sites for the proposed new school.

Some Odd Facts Brought to Light in Abstracting Title to Property Conveyed by School Board to Odd Fellows

FINISHES HIS WORK TODAY.

Quaint facts and picturesque conditions in the early history of McCracken county and the development of its public school system have been disclosed by Judge E. H. Puryear in his research among the records of the county, in an effort to show a clear title to the Longfellow building, to be used in transferring that property by the school board to the Odd Fellows. The abstract of the title will be delivered today to the committees from the school board and Odd Fellows, who have the negotiations in charge, and it will show the property free from all possible entanglements. With its acceptance by the Odd Fellows' committee the first payment of $5,000 will be made by that lodge to the school board.

Judge Puryear's abstract takes the property back to 1808 when by act of the legislature, certain lands in each county were set aside for school purposes. This was the first step toward public education in the county. In 1830 the birth of an actual school system took place, with an act authorizing the establishment of seminaries, and in 1839 a method of financing for schools through a lottery was authorized by the legislature.

That morality is simply an attitude toward any custom, is proven by this act of the state authorizing a lottery, a thing which public sentiment now stamps as pure gambling, and the antithesis of the governmental policy. This act chartered J. F. Harris, John Hynes, James Bell, Braxton Small, David S. Patton, citizens of the county, to hold a lottery similar to the Louisiana lottery. It was not to be in a sum over $100,000 and part of the profits from the lottery accrued to the state and were to be distributed for schools and other purposes as follows: One-fourth to the wharf; one-fourth to the Paducah Female Seminary and one-half to the Paducah Male Seminary.

The course of development of the schools is tortuous from the authorizing of the lottery until the next step which brings the Longfellow property into view. In 1848 this property was sold to the school commissioners in a sheriff's sale and a deed to the property was given in 1870. The property has been in the possession of the schools long enough to give the board of education a clear title even should the remote past show some uncertainties as to title. The present system of electing of trustees was not established until 1869 and from that date the election of trustees by wards has continued practically in unaltered form. In 1884 the various school acts of the legislature were simplified and reduced to a coherent whole. The abstract of the title is long and involved much labor.

OTTO E. CROSS CITIZEN OF THE UNITED STATES.

Otto E. Cross, a machinist and native of Germany, was granted final naturalization papers today, and is a citizen of the United States. He came to this country first in the early nineties, but returned. He came back in a few years and made application in 1900 for papers. He was then not of age and was compelled to wait until he had attained his majority. Cross married Miss Theresa Hummel, daughter of Mr. Fred Hummel.

March seems to have postponed its characteristic quality, wind, until April. The river today was dangerous for small craft and difficult for the big boats. Towboats could make but slow time against it and the packets sometimes find it necessary to tie up for a few hours. After falling steadily from March 25, when the stage was 42.3, the river has started back up the hill, the last 24 hours showing a rise of 4. The stage on this date last year 39.5. Business was dull at the wharf today.

Activity among the showboats indicates the approach of warm weather if the actual conditions do not. The Charles B. Pierce passed up last night from Helena, Ark., with a showboat in tow going to an Ohio river point to begin the season.

The excursion steamer W. W. tied up here will begin the season the first Sunday in May with an excursion out of Cairo.

Captain F. Gent's showboat, being built at the dry docks, is getting along steadily, though slowly, and will be ready to go out sometime in May.

Central Labor Union's excursion on the familiar Island Queen will be run out of here the latter part of this month.

The big combine towboat Boaz passed up yesterday laboring against the wind with 30 empties, bound for Pittsburg.

The Vincennes left yesterday for the Cumberland river after a tow of ties.

The towboat Eagle with a string of empties for the West Kentucky Coal company arrived from the Mississippi last night.

Headache and Sleeplessness

MRS. G. W. RORER.

Mrs. G. W. Rorer, of Rockville Center, L. I., suffered so from headaches and nervous trouble that she could not sleep.

She has failed to derive any benefit from the many other remedies she tried. She has been completely cured and restored to health, and now enjoys restful sleep, thanks to DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY.

Mrs. Rorer is 64 years of age and cannot say too much in praise of this great family medicine.

"I have been a constant sufferer from headache and nervous troubles, sometimes lying awake at night. I saw your advertisement in the paper and made up my mind to try your medicinal whiskey, and it did me so much good that I continued it, but now only take it in the evening and at noon time. I think that it is better than any medicine I can get. I have not had the doctor once since I commenced using it. I thank you again and again for the good it has done me. My age is 64 years."

—MRS. G. W. RORER, Rockville Center, L. I., Dec. 3, 1906.

The above unsolicited testimonial of Mrs. Rorer is similar in its words of praise to many letters received daily from men and women throughout the world, in all walks of life, who have been permanently cured by DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY, the greatest of all medicines.

Mississippi last night after a hard trip up against the wind. The Eagle will go south immediately after logs for a St. Louis Lumber company.

"De Castella," as the rousters call the Ayer-Lord Tie company's Castella, is doing harbor work here. The rousters usually put their own picturesque pronunciation on the names of the boats, and true to the music in their nature, improve them by the change into more euphonious sounds. Such names as the Savannah, Saltillo, "Georgy Lee," and others are subject to this treatment.

The Georgia Lee left Memphis last night at 8 o'clock and will pass here for Cincinnati Saturday evening.

The Peters Lee left Cincinnati on time and will pass here Saturday going down to Memphis.

The Kentucky arrived this morning from the Tennessee river with a good trip and will leave tomorrow evening for the same stream.

The Dick Fowler lazily cleared for Cairo this morning going down stream "akiting" in the face of the wind.

The John Hopkins arrived this afternoon from Evansville and departed for the same point after cleaning up the business here.

Official Forecasts.
The Ohio at Evansville, no material change, but probably a slight rise during the next 12 to 24 hours.

The Tennessee, from Florence to Riverton, will fall slowly during the next 12 to 24 hours. At Johnsonville, it will rise slowly during the next 12 hours, and probably fall thereafter.

The Mississippi, from below St. Louis to Cairo, no material change during the next 12 to 24 hours. The Wabash, at Mt. Carmel, will fall slowly during the next 12 to 24 hours.

Monday Night—Thomas Q. Seabrooke in "The Man on the Box."

"The Lion and the Mouse."

In the struggle between "Ready Money" Ryder, financial king, and Shirley Rossmore, the daughter of man whom he has intrigued against and who is in love with Ryder's son, Charles Klein in "The Lion and the Mouse" has brought about complications that furnish excellent dramatic scenes of an intensity and appeal such as have not been witnessed on the stage in recent years. For the interpretation of its principal characters Mr. Harris has shown much wisdom in the selection of an especially fine cast to interpret the play which is worthy in every way of the best actors. Tonight at the Kentucky.

"Man on the Box."

Walter N. Lawrence is now one of America's foremost theatrical managers and his greatest star and attraction is Thomas Q. Seabrooke in "The Man on the Box," which comes to the Kentucky on Monday night. Mr. Seabrooke's play is "The Man on the Box," a dramatization of Harold McGrath's famous novel of that title, and its principal character is a part absolutely ideal for Mr. Seabrooke's personality and versatile talents. Packed houses and sensational newspaper notices testify that the success of his tour is quite as great as he scored in his comic opera days as the star of "The Isle of Champagne," "Florodora" and "A Chinese Honeymoon."

One hundred years ago the West Indies supplied about one-half of the world's sugar, but the industry is on the decline. The world's crop of beet sugar is now about 6,800,000 tons.

INHABITANTS HAS CITY OF MAYFIELD NOW.

Corporation Line of Graves County Capital Extended Out Into Country.

Mayfield, Ky., April 12.—The city of Mayfield won a victory Wednesday afternoon in circuit court when Judge Hugg decided in its favor to enlarge the corporate limits.

The style of the suit was the city of Mayfield, petition, ex parte and has been pending in circuit court for two terms on the latter trial but over a year in the other one.

The line of extension covers a wide scope of territory and when the new sections are finally annexed the city will have a population that will hover around the 10,000 mark.

There were some changes made from the original survey of last summer in which all of S. R. Douthett's farm except nine acres were left out and this nine acres included his dwelling house.

All of Esq. Morris' place was left out with the exception of 100 feet fronting the road which runs east and west. The line goes to Mrs. R. E. Griffith's then south, taking in all of the Farthing addition, both the first and second additions.

The reason the court decided to deviate from the survey and leave out certain property was on account of it being farming lands.

It will be some time in May before the city can assume jurisdiction over the new allotted territory.

The city of Vienna recently built an electric fountain in one of its parks. It is very large and is capable of seventy different effects of illumination.

OPEN MEETING

WOMAN'S CLUB HOLDS ON THURSDAY, APRIL 18.

Educational Department Will Have Charge and Noted Speaker Will Be Heard.

The open meeting of the Woman's club for Thursday, April 18, will be in charge of the department of education. Mrs. Herbert W. Mengel, of Louisville will make the address and her subject will be "The Citizen As a Patron of the Public Schools." The meeting has been placed at 4 o'clock to suit the convenience of many who may desire to attend. Mrs. Mengel has requested that the men of Paducah especially will be present and wishes an open discussion from the floor after her talk is finished. The Woman's club invites all who are interested in the public schools and educational advantages, the board of education and the men of the city especially to be present. A large number should respond to this invitation. Paducah has been much in the limelight in recent years in educational matters and it behooves her interest should be indicated vigorously at this meeting. Mrs. Mengel who is a member of the education committee of the Kentucky Federation of Women's clubs, made an address at the state federation meeting at Mt. Sterling, last June on "Public Schools of Kentucky" that attracted much notice. She is a specialist in educational matters of Kentucky and for that reason was selected by the educational committee to present the subject. The meeting will be entirely without charge, and the public is invited.

NEWS OF KENTUCKY

Western Kentucky Coal Operators. Louisville, April 12.—The coal operators of western Kentucky met today at the Old Inn. Routine business was transacted and the board of directors re-elected. This consists of: I. P. Bernard, president; F. B. Leight, of Boyer, vice president; D. Stewart Miller, secretary.

Another Suit Against Hargis. Lexington, Ky., April 12.—Suit for $90,000 damages was filed in Jackson yesterday by the administrators of the heirs to the estate of the late Dr. B. D. Cox, against James Hargis, Elbert Hargis, Ed Callahan, John Abner, John Smith and Asbury Spicer, and service was had upon the defendants there. The five years' limitation expires Sunday. Judge Hargis came to Lexington this morning. The defendants, it is alleged in the petition, assassinated Dr. Cox.

Must Have Pure Milk. Louisville, Ky., April 12.—The pure food officials, who for the past week have been engaged in inspecting the dairies of Jefferson county, went to Lakeland Asylum this morning to inspect the dairy there and be guests at the asylum for dinner today. The inspection will be suspended until Monday morning on account of other business, which several members of the party are compelled to attend to. The inspection will be completed Monday and Tuesday, and the delinquent will be cited to appear in Magistrate Hollis' court to have the sentence already pronounced imposed on them. No tendency will be shown as all will have had time to clean up.

Reward For Dynamiters. Elton, Ky., April 12.—The residents of the neighborhood of Providence Methodist church, three miles north of this place, are very much exercised over the dynamiting of their house of worship Saturday night. The citizens of the vicinity today subscribed $100 as reward for the apprehension and arrest of the guilty persons. The reward was placed in the hands of the sheriff of Todd county, and he was instructed to employ a detective at the expense of the citizens. No motive can be assigned for the act, but it is believed to be purely wanton. The vandals fired off a charge of dynamite under the folding doors at the front of the church, on Saturday night, shattering the front part of the house and breaking about 75 windows.

RUSSIAN FAMINE REPORT. Appeal for Aid in Letter From Dr. Kennard.

London, April 1.—Dr. Kennard, commissioner of the Society of Friends, who was sent to investigate the Russian famine, writing from Samara, in the heart of the famine district, under date of April 3, appeals to the United States and Great Britain to promptly send help. He says: "There are 20,000,000 people distributed over the southeastern provinces of Russia who without aid can not live to see another harvest. In Samara alone, the commissioner adds thousands are dying and 750,000 are starving. Of the latter only $72,700 are getting relief, a dose of one meal in 24 hours. As a meal is only two pounds of bread and a bowl of soup, this, according to the commissioner, means dying by degrees. Even this meager dose in countless instances is divided among many mouths. There are only sufficient funds on hand to last until May 1, whereas money will be needed until the end of July, when the harvest will bring relief. The commissioner especially appeals for canned milk. He says there are 300,000 children in Samara province who have no milk and are forced to eat coarse bread made of acorns, powdered wood and cucumbers, resulting in thousands of deaths and much disease.

Out of Sight. "Out of sight, out of mind," is an old saying which applies with special force to a sore, burn or wound that's been treated with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's out of sight, out of mind and out of existence. Plies too and chilblains disappear under its healing influence. Guaranteed by all druggists.

Everything From the New Store is the Newest of the New

And Just a Little Better for the Price Than You Will Find Elsewhere.

If we did not give you the greatest values, and the newest and most exclusive styles, the assurance that The New Store has no old stocks should appeal to you. There is nothing here that is not absolutely "brand new," and our energetic merchandising methods, which mean so much to you, will assure you there will never be anything in Clothing or Furnishing here that should not be, and nothing missing that should find place here.

$10.00 We are specializing on some suits at $10, and will astonish you with the splendid values we give you at that price. After a great effort we secured a manufacturer to make us up a line to sell at this price along lines laid down by us, and we make the assertion that $10 won't buy the equal of these suits any where this season. The range of patterns and styles is large, so you are not restricted to a few garments for selections. $10.00

$15.00 At $15 we show you a line of blue serges that are worth at least $2.50 more than the price. They are made expressly for us, and we know their worth. But, we are not confined to serges for tremendous values at $15. We show a great range of worsteds, tibets and cassimeres, full or half lined, carefully hand and head tailored throughout in all the popular styles and shades of the season. $15.00

$20.00 At this price, of course, we offer you a better garment, but, then, a every price we give you better value than that price will buy elsewhere. Our $20 line gives you selections from all the handsome fabrics so popular this season—the brown and gray tones, the checks and stripes and the very popular stripe fabrics. The styles comprise the two or three button, slightly form tracing, medium length coats and the full trousers. $20.00

We Show Every Week New Things in Spring and Summer Shirts.

If you have observed our windows closely, you will note we show you some new shirts every week, and that they are always the latest word in shirt offerings.

This week we are showing the new Cluster stripes, blue and white in plain bosoms, the stripe running up and down the cuffs instead of the usual encircling stripes. They are very swell, priced $1.50.

For $1 we show a great value in a blue and white plaid shirt, plain bosoms, cuffs attached, coat style, which is exceptional in a dollar shirt. The money won't buy such quality anywhere else. Just note the displays in our show windows now.

Another very pretty shirt, something new, too, is our black and white figured imported Jacquard weave shirt. Plain bosoms, in the coat style, cuffs attached. Made by Bates Street, they are very distinctive garments. $2.

He gives nothing who gives only gold.

THE CLEAR FIELD.

Hope for Republican victory in Kentucky next fall is written in the interest shown all over the state in selecting the best and most available men for candidates, especial attention being given to their fitness for the position to which they aspire; in the early evinced anxiety of the Democratic press to boom certain weaklings as Republican candidates; in the proximity of a national election, which always turns voters from the dry rot of national Democracy to espouse the progressive principles of Republicanism; in the likelihood of a strong ticket being named. In the very air there is victory. The prospects now are that Kentuckians will have an opportunity to vote for the strongest ticket ever presented to them, after the state Republican convention. There is one danger, however, and a danger the Democratic press is endeavoring to exaggerate—that of some aspiring member of the party fastening his own little senatorial boom to the state ticket. It is all right, perhaps, for those far-sighted ones with big ambitions to fix their nets to snare the senatorial game, assuming that the legislature is to be Republican; but it will not do for the candidate for governor to become entangled in outside plans. He will have his hands full with his race, without beating the bushes for the senatorial rabbit on the way. Let Augustus E. Willson, or whoever is nominated, have clear running. Let all the ambitious leaders get on the hustings and elect the state ticket, carrying the legislative ticket along with it, and the county and city tickets as well. Then they may scrap for the senatorship in caucus. We know that the candidate for governor has no desire to stand sponsor for anybody's senatorial aspirations, but he should not be driven to make public announcement of the fact.

John Temple Graves was partially right, nearer right than he knew, when he said, Roosevelt stands for what is best in Democracy. Roosevelt is the foremost American citizen. He stands for all that is honest as he sees it, and he stands for all that is honest in Democracy as well as in everything else. It is only at the points where Democracy touches the truth that Roosevelt seems to stand on Democratic principles.

NEWS FOR NEW YORK.

When a man throws a shadow in New York, everybody in the Manhattan archipelago is sure that the shiver must run from Presque Isle to San Diego and from Key West to Puget Sound. Wherefore, after Mr. Harriman had concluded the telling of the story of the doing up of the Alton and of the exploitation of the Union Pacific, the Illinois Central and other lines, and had followed this up with an attack on the president, the New York Herald rushed to its multitudinous correspondents throughout the country in order to get and transmit the Republican party sentiment in their localities, as to any changes to be seen in it effected by his action. The first question in the list was one asking if Mr. Roosevelt has declined in popularity or public confidence because of the Harriman attack. Mirabile dictu! The universal answer is that, so far from declining, the president has grown several cubits in stature as a result of the attack. The Herald is a great newspaper though published in New York, and prints its returns without equivocation, as news for its readers. And its nose for news is as infallible now as ever, for it must have come as a revelation to the archipelago that even a president of the United States does not shrivel and shrink in every state of the union when a Napoleon of highball finance raises an issue with him.

In every part of the country but that which swarms around the mouth of the Hudson river, it was instantly realized, when Mr. Harriman's letter to Sidney Webster was printed so fast upon the heels of his confessions to the interstate commerce commission, that, without regard to which of the disputants is the active and which the honorary member of the Annapolis club, an attack from such a source, at such a time, was sure to immeasurably strengthen the president. The arrest of Mr. Harriman's former stenographer, who sold the letter to the newspaper which printed it, relieves Mr. Harriman of the horrible suspicion of having been a party to its publication. Such shreds of his reputation for political sense as would have remained if he had not cleared himself of such a doubt, would have matched the remnants of his reputation for conservative and constructive railroad management after he had testified before the commission, and he could have carried both assortments in his vest pocket.

Some standing for safety and sanity he has retained by prosecution of the man who betrayed his confidence. Mr. Harriman does not appear to have shared in the apparent New York curiosity as to whether an attack by him upon the president immediately after his testimony would weaken Roosevelt in the country. He seems not to have needed the Herald's revelations of the effect of such an attack by him at this time. None the less has the Herald exercised fine newspaper sagacity in collecting and publishing what must have been startling news to the mass of its readers. For we have excellent reason for believing that Mr. Harriman is about the only archipelago not surprised. The arrested stenographer tearfully protests that he thought he was doing a friendly service to Mr. Harriman and giving his enemies a jolt. Great is Manhattan!—Globe-Democrat.

At the first sign of Backache or pain in the region of the Kidneys, or weakness and Urinary trouble, the following simple prescription should be used:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

Any good prescription pharmacy will supply these three ingredients at small cost, which can easily be mixed by shaking well in a bottle. This is said to force the Kidneys to filter the sour acids and poisons from the blood, overcoming the worst cases of Rheumatism.

DIES FOR ART.

Pitiful Tale of Musical Genius Who Starved Himself.

New York, April 12.—After slowly starving himself so that he might have money to gratify his ambition for a musical training, John G. McFadden aged 32 years, died last night in the New York hospital.

He came to this city last November from Oberlin, O., where he had worked his way through college, devoting himself especially to music, as he had a voice of great promise. Then having saved sufficient money to care for his mother and sister and pave the way for a finishing course in music he came to New York and entered a class in the Institute of Music. There he attracted the attention of Prof. Klamroth, but suddenly developed a catarrhal affection which threatened to wreck his prospects of becoming a musical artist. Through the friendship of Professor Klamroth he went to Dr. Percy E. D. Malcolm for treatment. He had grown thinner and thinner, his hair had turned to a grizzled gray and Dr. Malcolm warned him more than once that he was not nurturing his body properly. Last Monday Dr. Malcolm found McFadden on the verge of collapse in a chair in his office.

Dr. Malcolm sent him to New York hospital, where he underwent an operation for appendicitis, but the poorly nurtured body could not stand the strain.

Marshal of Kuttawa Thinks Floater Was Colored Man.

Marshal William McCullom, of Kuttawa, passed through Paducah this morning en route home after inspecting the floater found near Brookport in the river several days ago.

"Do you believe that art can improve on nature?" asked the idealist. "I don't know," answered the matter-of-fact person, "but I must say I could never see how the Easter colorings helped the favor of the egg."—Washington Star.

NO VEGETABLES.

Cairo Has No Land and Paducah Not Prepared.

Wholesale purchases of the best garden land around Cairo by a new railroad building into that town, have resulted in a shortening of the truck garden business to the extent that vegetables have to be imported to meet the demands. Mr. S. A. Fowler this morning received an order from a Cairo dealer asking for prices on vegetables and the quantities in which they could be supplied. Mr. Fowler, who went into the business primarily to raise quality rather than quantity, has achieved something of a reputation for his garden truck. The daily packet service would enable the easy shipment of vegetables out of Paducah if a trade was built up. Mr. Fowler, however, had not planted in quantities sufficiently large to meet the out-of-town demand and will not be able to ship to Cairo from his garden.

HEALTH AND HAPPINESS.
"Life consists not in living, but in enjoying health."

We could all enjoy health if we conformed to Nature's simple laws. Disease is merely a result of the non-observance of those laws, either by negligence, accident or ignorance. These reasons are, as a rule, of little consequence after disease becomes manifest and properly diagnosed. It is the nature of the treatment and the results obtained that concern you.

Nature is the ever present factor in the cure of disease. The Osteopath appreciates this fact, and uses all means that are natural, recognizing and using diet, air, water, exercise and other hygienic measures as natural assistants to scientific manipulations to secure normally to any and all structure disturbances.

I should be pleased to refer you, at any time, to Paducah people you know well who can attest to what Osteopathy has done for them in cases of rheumatism, asthma, neuralgia, nervousness, stomach, liver, and bowel troubles, eczema, sick headaches, in grippe conditions, malaria, Debility, Stomach and Blood conditions.

and the keen edge was pressed through Mr. Braughton's throat just under his chin. Without uttering a sound, save the gurgling noise, caused by the cutting of his windpipe, he fell back from the grindstone to the floor and was dead before assistance could reach him. His head was left hanging to his body by a shred of flesh and skin at the back of the neck.

NUTTY ABOUT THAW.

Pittsburg Youth Wished to Be Multi-Millionaire.

Pittsburg, April 12.—Robert M. Crow, scion of a wealthy family and only 23 years old, shot himself this afternoon while in a box at the Grand opera house matinee in full view of the audience. The doctors say he will die.

Crow's relatives say he was insane and that his malady was "Pittsburg paranoia."

"For some time," said his uncle, H. C. McElowney, president of the Union Trust company, "he has imagined that he was a failure in life because he had not already amassed a vast fortune in the two years since he has been out of school. He seemed to think that he could become a Carnegie or a Frick in a day."

"The Thaw trial also had a great deal to do with his mental derangement. At the beginning of the trial he began studying the different forms of insanity as they were mentioned at the trial, frequently sitting up all night reading books on the subject. He certainly was insane."

Mrs. Tom Thumb.

Like a wispy little breeze out of the past came Mrs. Tom Thumb, Countess Magri, through Shreveport from Kansas City yesterday, on her way to San Antonio, Tex., to join the Gentry Bros. show. Accompanying the wee lady was her husband, Count Magri, and Baron Magri, her brother-in-law.

Sixty-five years ago this little woman, who has been one of the world's human wonders, was born. Reaching the age when girls fall in love, the heart of her, which was as big as any other big girl's heart, went out to Charles S. Stratton, generally known to the world as General Tom Thumb, and they were married.

In story books and newspapers the tiny couple filled many pages, and when Tom Thumb died much sympathy was extended his little wife by the crowned heads, rulers and mere folks. But twenty-two years ago the widow consoled herself by taking another husband, Count Magri.

It is years and years since General and Mrs. Tom Thumb, and sweet Minnie Warren, now dead, and the walnut-shaped coach, drawn by his four midsize ponies, delighted the children and grown-ups of the land as they drove through the streets or presented the story of "Cinderella" in packed theaters. War Is Not Yet Ended.

Mobile, Ala., April 12.—According to a letter received by the Register today via the steamer Hiram from Puerto Cortez, the Nicaraguan-Honduran-Salvadoran war is not yet at an end. The correspondent at Puerto Cortez did not have full information at the time of the departure of the Hiram on the evening of April 7, but he states that the last telegram from the president of Salvador was to the effect that he was sending 20,000 men against Nicaragua to renew the combat.

ED LEIGH HAS ODD EXPERIENCE

Frankfort, Ky., April 12.—Many queer communications come to the executive department here in a week's time, and it is left largely to Private Secretary Ed Leigh, an old newspaper man, to take care of them. Quite a number of the writers have ideas to spare on how the affairs of government should be conducted, and some few express dissatisfaction over the act of some official.

Probably the official complained of is an obscure under officer of a county in which the writer makes his or her home, for many of the writers are women, but they seem to think that the governor of the commonwealth was elected for the purpose of "jacking-up" every fellow in official position who happens to give offense to some one.

Other writers are inmates of the insane asylums of the state, and they will write intelligently for a page or so and then wander off on their particular hallucination. One very persistent correspondent, who doesn't need a response to make him write again to the department, thinks it is the duty of the governor to select and send him a wife.

When these letters fall into the hands of the executive he just writes the name "Leigh" across the envelope and it falls to the lot of the private secretary to determine whether response should be made and what the response should be.

A Queer Appeal.
Among such a bunch of letters the secretary came across one yesterday which presented a problem as well as exemplifying the abiding faith the people of the commonwealth have in their governor to settle all matters for them which they themselves cannot solve. The name of the writer and the city from which the letter was written, are withheld, as the letter is not one from a crank nor an insane person, but evidently from a man with an all-abiding faith in the powers and duties of the chief executive.

Secretary Leigh has asked assistance in framing a response. The writer goes on to say in his letter that he worked for a man for exactly three hours and ten minutes, and upon completion of the work, for which he had contracted beforehand, he was offered the munificent sum of twenty cents. "I would not take that," says the writer. "Governor, will you please see into it for me?" Secretary Leigh cannot determine just what the governor can do in a case of this kind. It has been suggested that he just pay the bill.

W. C. on Rebate Trial.
Minneapolis, April 12.—The Wisconsin Central road which was indicted for giving rebates to the Spencer Grain company on 17 counts was placed on trial in Judge Page Morris' court today.

She: "No, Jack, I'm afraid it's impossible. We should never get on well together. You know I always want my own way so much."
He: "Well, that's all right. You could go on wanting it after we were married."

PEOPLE AND SOCIAL EVENTS

Matinee Musical Club.
The active members of the Matinee Musical club are called to meet on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Mrs. Hubbard S. Wells at the Empire flats on Broadway.

Entre Nous Club.
Miss Blanche Hills entertained the Entre Nous club most pleasantly at cards on Thursday afternoon at her home on North Ninth street. The only visitors were a few to fill club vacancies. The club prize was taken by Miss Corinne Winstead. Miss Nell Paxton captured the visitor's prize. A prettily appointed luncheon was served in the dining room after the game.

Magazine Club.
The Magazine club met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. A. S. Dabney, of North Fifth street. It was the first meeting of the club since February, when all meetings through Lent were called in out of respect to the memory of the president, Mrs. Bertie Fowler Campbell. It was an important business session as well as a social meeting of the club.

The club was called to order by Mrs. J. C. Flournoy, the vice president. After the roll call an election of officers for the next year was entered upon. Nominations for president were called for. Miss Anna Webb was first nominated and then the choice was made unanimous. Miss Webb is the first president of the club and was instrumental in its organization in February, 1922, and the selection is singularly appropriate. It is very fitting that she should succeed Mrs. Campbell, who always gave the Magazine club a place she accorded no other club in her enthusiasm and interest. Gracious and charming Miss Webb will fill the position with honor. The other officers were elected to succeed themselves and were: Mrs. J. C. Flournoy, vice president; Miss Minnie Ratcliffe, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. E. G. Boone, corresponding secretary, a testimony to their ability and interest.

Several changes were made in the magazines and in the work for next year which will come out in the new Year Book. The committee to arrange the year-book is: Miss Webb and Mrs. George C. Wallace. Miss Ethel Morrow was elected to membership, to fill the place made vacant by the death of Mrs. Campbell. To attend the meeting of the Kentucky Federation of Women's clubs at Shelbyville in June, the following were selected: Mrs. Campbell Flournoy and Mrs. Frank Scott, delegates; Mrs. Hal Corbett and Mrs. Edward Bringham, alternates.

The literary program was especially delightful and full of interest. The North American Review was featured by Miss Helen Lowry who gave a fine tribute from W. D. Howells to Longfellow, and Mrs. Frank L. Scott who told "Why Casuistry should be studied by Women," by George Harvey. From the Harper's Magazine Mrs. Edward Bringham discussed "The Music of Men and Birds," and Mrs. Robert Becker Phillips gave a clever story by Justus Miles Forman. An attractive course luncheon was served at the close of the reports. Mrs. George Sweeney, of Boston, Mass., was a guest of the club.

Kalopsophic Club.
The Kalopsophic club met this morning with Miss Blanche Hills. The interesting program for discussion was:
1. Current Topics—Miss Powell.
2. Life of Oliver Goldsmith—Miss Park.
3. Dramatic Art of Tennyson and Thomas A. Becket—Mrs. Henry Rudy.
4. Club Study—"She Stoops to Conquer."

He is to be appointed by the governor and may appoint one deputy for each county of 100,000 inhabitants. The duties of the commissioner shall be to inspect dram shops and enforce the liquor laws.

No person, club, corporation or association shall conduct a dramshop without a state license, and the commissioner shall not issue a license to any person in counties of less than 100,000 until the application has been approved by the county court. The fee for a license for six months is fixed at $100. In cities and counties of less than 100,000, and in counties containing cities of 100,000 or more, applicants for license must file a certified copy of order of the county court for license with the commissioner before a license can be issued.

When the commissioner has reason to believe dramshop laws are being violated he shall have authority to revoke licenses, but before revocation he shall give ten days' notice and the accused shall have opportunity to meet the charges.

Knapp, Louisville; grand keeper of records, W. B. Moore, of Louisville; grand treasurer, John H. Burnett, Paducah; grand herald, W. L. Reynolds, Slaughter'sville, Ky.; grand warder of inner gate, W. AGENTS OF GOVERNMENT

Will Be All Head Accountants of Railroads.

Washington, April 12.—To put an end to rebates and discriminations in railroad charges, the interstate commerce commission proposes to take a radical step. The commissioner will make every head accountant of a railroad a sworn agent of the government, bound to the exact enforcement of the law and to guarantee that the letter of published tariffs shall be enforced to the making and collecting of charges. This plan of enforcing the new law has been devised as a result of the studies of Prof. Henry C. Adams, in charge of statistics for the commission. Under the new plan the allowance of a claim will become a mere matter of traffic. No traffic officer will be empowered to order that an A's rate shall be the published tariff rate less 20 per cent, and that B's rate shall be the published rate less 10 per cent. To obey that order would involve the sworn accounting officer in a violation of the law, and of his oath to obey it. So it has been decided to take away from the traffic officials all discretion and authority in the matter of claims. It shall become exclusively an accounting affair.

His Dear Old Mother.

"My dear old mother, who is now eighty-three years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. B. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. "She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellent appetite, feels strong and sleeps well." That's the way Electric Bitters affect the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak, puny children too, are greatly strengthened by them. Guaranteed also for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by all druggists, 50c.

VETOES SANTA FE MERGER BILL

Texas Governor Says Dividends Are Drawn From State Road.

Austin, Tex., April 12.—The governor today vetoed the Santa Fe consolidation or merger bill. One of the strongest points made by the governor is that the Santa Fe management is using the Texas road to pay dividends on the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railway, thereby running up the debt of the Texas properties. It is understood that an effort will be made to pass the bill over the governor's veto.

A MAKER OF HISTORY

By E. PHILLIPS OPPENHEIM,

He seated himself at a small round table and ordered a drink. The people here were of a slightly different class from those who had the entire to the supper room and were mostly crowded round the bar itself. At a small desk within a few feet of him a middle aged woman with a cold, hard face sat, with a book of accounts before her and a pile of bills. There was something almost sphinxlike about her appearance.
She never spoke. Her expression never changed. Once their eyes met, she looked at him steadfastly, but said nothing. The girl behind the bar also took note of him. She was very tall and slim, absolutely colorless and with colls of fair hair drawn tightly back from her forehead. She was never without a cigarette, lighting a fresh one always from its predecessor, talking all the while unceasingly, but without the slightest change of expression.

"I am very sorry, monsieur, but tonight every place is taken."

Once she waved the men and girls who stood talking to her on one side, and Duncombe fancied that it was because she desired a better view of him.

Suddenly he was startled by a voice close at hand. He looked up. The woman at the desk was speaking to him.

"Monsieur would be well advised,"
she said, "if he departed."

Duncombe looked at her in amazement. She was writing rapidly in her book, and her eyes were fixed upon her work. If he had not actually heard her it would have been hard to believe that she had spoken.

"But why, madame?" he asked.
"Why should I go? I am in no one's way. I can pay for what I have."

She dipped her pen in the ink.
"I know nothing of monsieur or of his business," she said, still without ever glancing toward him, "but I know that M. Alfred does not wish him to remain."

"The devil take M. Alfred!" Duncombe answered angrily. "I am waiting to speak to some one who comes here regularly, and I shall stay until they come."

The woman wrote steadily for a moment. Then she blotted the page on which she had been writing and, raising her head, looked at him.

"It is no affair of mine," she said,
"but M. Alfred has sent for the police.
They may say that you have had too much wine or that you owe money. In either case you will be removed. The police will not listen to you. M. Alfred has special discretion. It is no affair of mine," she repeated, "but if I were monsieur I would go."

Duncombe rose slowly to his feet and, summoning a waiter, paid his bill.
The man produced a second one, dated a few days back, for a large amount.

"What is the meaning of this?" he asked. "I do not owe you anything."

"Monsieur was here with a party last Thursday night," he said glibly. "He promised to pay the next time. I will call the manager."

Duncombe tore the bill in half and turned away. He bowed to the lady at the desk.

"I see that you were right," he said.
"I will leave."

"Monsieur is wise," she answered, without looking up.

He left the cafe without speaking to any one further. When he reached the pavement he slipped a five franc piece into the hand of the tall commission-aire.

"You know most of the young ladies who come here, I suppose?" he asked.

"But certainly!" the man answered, with a smile. "Monsieur desire?"

"I want the address of a young lady named Mermillon. Flossie, I think, they call her," Duncombe said.

"Thirty-one Rue Pigalle," the man answered promptly. "But she should be here within an hour. She never misses."

Duncombe thanked him and hailed a carriage.

"Shall I give mademoiselle any message?" the man asked confidentially.

stairs, pushed open a swing gate and found himself in front of an office in which an elderly woman sat reading.
"Can you tell me where to find Mlle.
Mermillon?" Duncombe asked.

"Next floor; first door on the left,"
the woman answered. "Mademoiselle is not often in at this hour, though."

Duncombe thanked her and climbed another flight of stairs. He had to strike a match to look for a bell or knocker and then found neither.

He knocked on the door with his knuckles.
There was no reply. He was on the point of departure when he noticed that the door was ajar. After a moment's hesitation he pushed it open.

He found himself in a narrow passage, with dresses and other articles of apparel hanging from a row of pegs in the wall. The place was in complete darkness. He struck another match. At the end of the passage was an inner door, also ajar. He rapped upon it and finally pushed it open.

Just then his match went out.

drouth are almost forgotten in the prosperous Kansas of today; although a citizen of Codell, Earl Shamburg,

JACKSON CHARTER

BILL PASSES TENNESSEE GEN-

Saloons Will Have to Go After April 1, 1908, According to New Terms.

Nashville, April 1.—The question of saloons or no saloons in Jackson was settled today when the bills to abolish the charter and reincorporate the town without saloons were passed in the senate, with an amendment, however, extending the time for the saloons to remain open from November 1, 1907, to April 1, 1908.
The legislative delegation from Madison county agreed to a compromise this morning and settled upon April 1, 1908, as the time for the whisky traffic in Jackson to cease.

From 1,200 to 1,500 Coaches Filled With Immigrants Stalled.

St. Paul, Minn., April 11.—Traffic conditions on the Canadian Northern railway in the northwest are reported in worse shape than they have been on any western road this year.

All freight offices have had notices of the embargo on shipments west of Kamasach, and passenger travel limited.

The present tieup has been caused by the blizzards which have been sweeping over western Canada. It has been reported that from 1,200 to 1,500 coaches filled with immigrants have been tied up between Emerson and St. Vincent, and the suffering at times has been intense. The blockade in the north is beginning to affect all other lines.

DR. WILLIAMSON WAS NOT GUILTY

Unanimous Verdict Against Charges of Mayor

City Physician Not Amenable to Orders of Policemen and Has Discretion.

MAY AMEND CITY ORDINANCE.

Not guilty was the verdict returned by the aldermen in the case of alleged neglect of duty preferred against Dr. H. F. Williamson, city physician, by Mayor Yeiser. The vote of the board was unanimous for acquittal.

When the aldermen filed in and the vote was taken President Palmer voted not guilty and announced that some of the members would explain their position. Aldermen Chamblin and Hubbard voted not guilty without any comment. On voting Alderman Hannan arose and stated that from the evidence the defendant was not guilty as it was left to the city physician's judgment as whether the call was for a pauper, but he thought at the next meeting an ordinance should be brought in repealing the present one and requiring the physician to attend on notice given by the police department or any other one. Aldermen Hank and Smith agreed with the statement of Alderman Hannan. Dr. Stewart said:
"Mr. Hannan has expressed it pretty well."

After the announcement of the vote Dr. Williamson arose and thanked the aldermen for their kindness and said although he refused to send the patient to the hospital as an indigent, he was dressing and preparing to come to the city hall when information was received that it was too late.

When President Palmer rapped for order seven members were in their seats, Alderman Baker being the absentee. They were sworn and the charges of the mayor read to them. City Solicitor Campbell explained the laws on the point of neglect of duty. In addition to the charge another one more specific was read. Judge Lightfoot, representing the defendant, made a few preliminary remarks.

The first witness was Patrolman Thad Terrell, who related going to the St. Nicholas hotel about 3 o'clock on the morning of March 28, where he found Mr. Otho Fisher and brought him to the city hall. Roundsman Gourieux was notified to "phone the city physician and Mr. Terrell said a short time afterwards he did himself and Dr. Williamson refused to send the patient to the city hospital. Between 30 and 40 minutes after reaching the hall Mr. Terrell upon examination found the man had expired.

Roundsman Gourieux testified to the occasion and of his telephoning for the city physician, who after being told of the dangerous condition of the man refused to obey instructions of the police. He telephoned a relative of the sick man and another physician was summoned, but it was too late.

Patrolman Shelby and Night Clerk Newman, of the hotel, testified to the seemingly suffering man.

Mayor Yeiser testified he had given

Congressman Favrot Free.—Baton Rouge, La., April 12.—Democratic Congressman George K. Favrot was set free today after having been in jail continuously for about five months, under arrest on a charge of murder and awaiting action of a grand jury. Today the second grand jury refused to indict the congressman.

Favrot last November shot and killed Dr. R. H. Aldrich, of Baton Rouge, who had been his life-long friend. The congressman declared that the physician had made disparaging remarks about Mrs. Favrot.

A ROYAL TONIC

Beats Anything We Ever Sold As a Strength Creator and Body Builder.

Our well-known druggist, Mr. W. B. McPherson, is very enthusiastic over the delicious cod liver preparation, Vinol, which contains no oil. In referring to the matter, Mr. McPherson said: "We sell many tonics and we handle all kinds of remedies that claim to be tonics and strength creators, but when our advice is asked in regard to a tonic, body-builder or strength creator we invariably recommend Vinol, as we know of nothing that can compare with it."

"In Vinol modern science has given us all of the tonic, body building and curative elements of that famous old remedy, cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cods' livers, without a drop of the system clogging oil which characterizes old fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions."

"In the most natural manner Vinol tones up the digestive organs, creates a hearty appetite, makes rich, red blood, and strengthens every organ in the body."

"Our faith in Vinol is so strong that we gladly offer to refund the money in every case where it fails to give satisfaction." W. B. McPherson, Druggist.

Note—While we are sole agents for Vinol in Paducah, it is now for sale at the leading drug store in nearly every town and city in the country. Look for the Vinol agency in your town.

BURNED TO DEATH

YOUNG WOMAN OF BOYDSVILLE MEETS UNTIMELY END.

Clothing Caught Fire in Field Where She Was Burning Cornstalks for Father.

Mayfield, Ky., April 12.—The people in and about Boydsville are in deep grief over the death of Miss Bernice Ross, who died from the effects of being burned Wednesday. She was the daughter of Mr. Henry Ross, a prominent farmer who lives near that town. While she was in the field near the house assisting in burning some cornstalks, her clothing took fire from the effects of which she died.

The accident happened Tuesday morning about 10 o'clock, and she died Wednesday morning about 5 o'clock.

She was 18 years old and was well beloved by all who knew her.

LOSES INCUBATOR BABY.

World's Fair Child Awarded to Woman Who Adopted It.

Ottawa, Ill., April 12.—The decision of the appellate court, handed down today awarding the custody of the infant in the world's fair incubator baby case to Mrs. Stella Barelay, of Rochester, N. Y., is directly opposite to the decision of the supreme court of Kansas given out last Saturday awarding the child to its mother, Mrs. Charlotte Barclay, of Lawrence, Kan. The baby was seen in the incubator by Mrs. Barclay, who traced its parentage and persuaded the mother to sign a deed of adoption. The infant was left at the incubator concession by a St. Louis midwife, who told Mrs. Barelay it had been born dead.

INTERNATIONAL AFFAIR

Is Dedication of Carnegie Institute At Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, April 12.—The formal re-dedication exercises of the enlarged Carnegie Institute of Pittsburg, valued at $6,000,000 and one of the most beautiful and complete institutions of its kind in the world were brought to a close for the day with the announcement of the prize winners in the international art exhibition.

The first prize—a gold medal and $1,500 went to Gaston Latouche of Paris, France, and the second—a silver medal and $1,000 to Thomas Eakins, of Philadelphia.

Today the guests attended a concert given in their honor by the Pittsburg orchestra.

The ceremonies today, while elaborate, were marked with extreme simplicity. Addresses of international importance were delivered by Theodore Von Moeller, German minister of state; Paul Doumer, ex-speaker of the French chamber of deputies; Andrew Carnegie, Baron D'Estournelles De Constant member of the French senate, and Doctor John Rhys, principal of the Jesus college, Oxford University.

ADMITS TRAIN WRECK EFFORTS

Sruthers, O., Lad Said to Have Confessed to Attempt.

New Castle, Pa., April 12.—Eugene Fandozzi, aged 9 years, of Sruthers, O., is said to have made a confession today to Division Superintendent Henry Thorton, of the Pennsylvania railroad, that he had twice attempted to wreck fast trains on the Pennsylvania railroad near Lowellville, O., fourteen miles west of here.

The first attempt occurred Feb. 6, when a shifting crew discovered a pole, weighted down with stones, placed across the main line just before a fast express was due.

Yesterday afternoon the Pennsylvania express, eastbound from Cleveland to Pittsburg, struck another obstruction in the same vicinity, but remained on the tracks.

The boy was taken to Youngstown, where it is said two charges of train wrecking will be made against him.

Willson Has His Own Way.

Louisville, April 12.—The contest for the Republican nomination for governor is over, and the announcement made in the Evening Post a week ago, that Augustus E. Willson, of Louisville, will receive the nomination without opposition, is now certain of fulfillment. During the last few days, the following Republicans, who considered entering the race, have decided not to become candidates, but will go into the harmonious arrangement to nominate Mr. Willson by acclamation: Judge James Breathitt, Judge W. H. Holt, former Congressman John W. Lewis and Mr. E. T. Franks. As Mr. John W. Yerkes, Judge A. R. Burnham and Chief Justice O'Rear had already declared themselves out, no opposition remains to Mr. Willson, and the Republican leaders said today that everything was settled and that the coming Republican state convention would be the most harmonious and enthusiastic in the history of the party.

The saddest failure of all is not to try.

Local Notes.

Dick Brahic, the Paducah pitcher, returned yesterday afternoon from Augusta, Ga., with his release from the South Atlantic league team of that city. "I did not get a fair show," Brahic stated. "I got in Friday night and put on a uniform Saturday. The league opened Monday and no Sunday games are played. I worked out a little but did not have an opportunity to show what I could do, getting my release Tuesday." Brahic will remain in Paducah to play independent ball unless he secures an offer from some other league team.

The Mound City date has been broken and the Culley team will not play in that city Sunday. Instead a game will be played here against the Metropolis Blues. Dick Brahic will pitch for the Culleys and Block will catch.

BERLIN HEARS OF NEW ANGLO-SPANISH ALLIANCE

Berlin April 12.—The Tageblatt says it is reported in diplomatic circles in Berlin that an Anglo-Spanish alliance has been definitely concluded on the basis of Spain agreeing in the event of war to place all Spanish ports at the disposal of Great Britain, the latter, on her part, giving Spain her diplomatic support in all matters of foreign policy, as well as financial support in the form of necessary loans.
